

This is Not Art

A juried exhibition with a theme for all artists and media with the exception of photography

January 13 - February 25, 2016

Marcel Duchamp anonymously submitted Fountain to the Society of Independent Artists for exhibition in 1917. The exhibition was non juried and all works submitted by members were to be displayed. However, the organization refused to exhibit this work, arguing that it was not art. Duchamp contested that Fountain was art, because the artist had made it. With this work, Duchamp challenged the idea of what art can be. Our juried theme show this year is in celebration of the 100th anniversary of Duchamp's groundbreaking work. This is Not Art is a theme, but also a challenge. A challenge to create works that push boundaries.
